Federal Member for Newcastle Sharon Grierson will tomorrow return to Carrington Public School to officially open new Commonwealth-funded works.

Ms Grierson, who was Carrington Public School Principal in the 1990s, will open the works as part of the School's Education Week Assembly.

The School will unveil its new security fencing, shade structure and playground upgrade funded with $107,116 from the Commonwealth Investing In Our Schools Program.

A $10,866 Commonwealth Community Water Grant has also been used to install rainwater tanks and upgrade toilet facilities, and the School's new flagpole is being dedicated.

"Education Week is a great time to unveil these vital upgrades to the School's infrastructure," Ms Grierson said.

"The fencing and playground works will make the School safer and more comfortable for learning and play, while the installation of water tanks is expected to save over 200,000 litres of water each year."

"I am delighted that the school is taking these measures to help its students and to do its bit for the environment."
