SCRATCH ME NOT HAPPY JOHN

Peter Costello's statement today that he can't be sure he won't challenge John Howard for leadership makes this election a lottery for voters and Sharon Grierson's office has election "Scratchies" available for voters who want to make a punt before casting their real vote.

Voters deserve to know just who they are voting for in this election. A vote for Sharon Grierson means a vote for Mark Latham as Prime Minister, but a vote for the coalition means a game of chance.

Any voters considering a vote for the coalition are welcome to visit my office and receive a scratchie to play the Liberal national odds or if they prefer certainty Labor's policies of opportunity might be a better bet.
